DEBT OFFER TO CHANGE

Caillaux Seeks Compromise

Paris, Sept. 28.—The attempt to settle the debt of King George V of the United Kingdom has been a long and arduous process. The British government has been seeking a compromise that would allow the king to remain on the throne while the debt is repaid. The French government, however, has been reluctant to agree to such a compromise. The French government has been demanding that the king be removed from the throne and that the debt be repaid in full. Lord Grey's Memoirs Give Intimate Details of Events Leading Up to Entry into Conflict

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Enlightening many hitherto obscured pages of the history of the World War, Viscount Grey's volumes of memoirs have just been given to the public in Europe and America. Lord Grey's chronicle of the intimate details of the diplomatic negotiations between Washington and London which preceded the entry of America into the great conflict, probably has primary interest on this side of the Atlantic, but his volumes also are rich with diplomatic history written by a man who was Britain's Foreign Minister during the early years of the war, and who was longer than any other man the Foreign Minister of a great world power.

MITCHELL ON STAND

Aviation Charges Reiterated

Testimony Given President's Board, Virtually Repeats Former Allegations
WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—Col. (Billy) Mitchell today had his final say in the investigation of the aviation conditions of the United States Army and Navy before the President's board. While Col. Mitchell was just as vehement, just as earnest and just as caustic in his criticism of the nation's air service, his charges fell rather flat because his whole testimony was merely a repetition of charges already made by the intrepid but rash aviator.

After sending the two bodies to the surface, the divers again started work on the wreck. For several hours no message came from them. Then, at 1:50 o'clock, they messaged that they had reached the control room. The crew may have been trapped in that section and drowned. Or they may have been able to escape into other airtight chambers and locked the compartment doors behind them.

Floor service when you want it—

Even the big-scale undertakings—such as installing many thousand square yards of floors in offices and corridors of a towering skyscraper—can be completed with surprising dispatch. We have the practical engineering experience and facilities, plus a large staff of expert workmen, necessary to successful completion of the work. Because of these resources we are able to avoid delays in the meeting of your specifications.

All contracts are always handled in the typical Bonded Floors way. Which means highest grade materials, scientifically installed by skilled workmen, under the supervision of experienced flooring engineers.

The Bonded Floors Company is a highly developed national organization that specializes in installing all types of resilient floors. Its experience includes thousands of contracts in America's largest office buildings, department stores and public institutions as well as in apartments, clubs, etc.

Without expense or obligation, one of our experienced flooring engineers will gladly advise you. Ask him about the Surety Bond against repair expense, issued by the U. S. Fidelity and Guaranty Co., and obtainable with every floor installed according to Bonded Floors specifications.

You can count upon us for prompt attention to your flooring needs. Let us cooperate with you.

LITTLE GAINED BY JAY-DRIVER

Test in Kansas City Proves Value of Safety

Violator Took Chances in Thirty-six Cases

Only Six Minutes Saved in Five-Mile Run

(KANSAS CITY, Sept. 29.—The Kansas City Safety Council has just completed a drive test that showed that the jay driver gains little or nothing by his disregard of law and safety. The council drove two motor cars over a five-mile course from the residence district to the business district of Kansas City. One car was driven by a careless driver and the other by a careful driver.

The careless driver shot by standing street cars, squeezed through safety zones, used the wrong side of the street, took intersections at thirty miles an hour and otherwise made thirty-six violations of the safety and traffic laws. The careful driver started at the same time, observed all the law's safety regulations and respected the rights of pedestrians and other motorists. Only six minutes was saved by the careless driver.

The careless car was placarded: "The driver of this car is a scoff-law. Trying to get there in a hurry, by driving too fast, ignoring traffic rules, hogging the road, taking chances."

The safe car bore the sign: "This car has a safe driver. One who keeps to the right, obeys all traffic rules, thinks safety. A demonstration that it doesn't pay to take chances."

A log of the trip showed the following thirty-six traffic violations by the careless car: Through three safety zones; crowded between street car and motor cars; cut corners; no signals whatever; no stops for lights; passed on the wrong side of street car; through an intersection at thirty miles an hour; no regard for "road hog" line in center of road; disregarded all amber lights; cut through traffic; narrowly missed a pedestrian; no regard for safety zone; paid no attention to any danger zones on Grand avenue; traffic blocked car at Grand and Twelfth, but a street car was beaten by crowding through pedestrians.

Death Reveals Rich Estate of Octogenarian

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Mrs. Mary S. Croson, who lived in modest circumstances in a single room, was considered in straitened circumstances by her neighbors. After her death last January at 85 years of age, it was found she had left an estate valued at $3,523,183, according to an inventory filed yesterday with Surrogate Wingate in Brooklyn.

Mrs. Croson was the daughter of James S. Croson, who was prominent in Brooklyn affairs many years ago, and known as "the father of Prospect Park."

Mrs. Croson lived alone during her last eight years. Two of Mrs. Croson's cousins have been appointed administrators of the estate. They are A. J. Fitch of Westmoreland, N. Y., and E. Root Fitch, of Dowagiac, Mich.

LOVE TELEGRAM FOUND BY WIFE

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Because she failed to heed the well-known admonition, "Don't put it in writing," Majorie Rambeau, actress, is once again in the spotlight in one of those triangle affairs, the other two corners of which are Mrs. Mabel Manton and her good-looking young actor-husband, Kevin Manton.

Majorie wrote a telegram and dispatched it to Manton. Mrs. Manton found the telegram and dispatched it to a casual collaborator on the stage. It was a fervent avowal of love. Mrs. Manton became suspicious and, later, with four burly companions, surprised Majorie and Mrs. Manton's husband, so Mrs. Manton asserts, in a room at the Hotel Vendôme.

Majorie is now a co-respondent, Manton a defendant and Mrs. Manton a plaintiff.

It is the second time Majorie has been cast in the role.

Hungary Court Sure Otto Will Ascend Throne

(BUDAPEST, Sept. 29.—Count Albert Apponyi of Hungary said yesterday that he expected King Otto of Hapsburg to sit on the throne of Hungary some day.

"Under the Hungarian law he is legally the King of Hungary today, although he has not been crowned," the venerable Hungarian statesman explained. "After his father's death Queen Zita fulfilled the necessary formality by declaring a force majeure prevented Otto from being crowned, and some day, when the Little Entente ends menacing Hungary, he will return to ascend the throne."

Count Apponyi, who is leaving Geneva to visit Princess Zita and her eight children in Spain, said Otto is being trained as ruler of Hungary.

WALES HAS HOPES OF RETURN TO ARGENTINA

(BUENOS AIRES, Sept. 29.—The Prince of Wales in an eleventh-hour announcement before sailing yesterday, said that he hoped some day to again visit Argentina incognito, and again enjoy a game of polo, from which sport he is definitely retiring, "owing to series of disagreeable incidents in his home country," causing something of a sensation in sporting circles, where it is inferred that the Prince of Wales's steeply declining days also have come to an end. While a return visit to Argentina is problematical and certainly remote, another trip to the United States is more likely, when the thought of Meadowbrook may induce the Prince to break his determination not to play polo again.

LADY CYNTHIA TO SEEK OFFICE

Chicagoan's Daughter Plans Run for Parliament

Declares Aim to Become Good Politician

Husband Once Sought Seat in House of Commons

BY JOHN STEELE

(BY CABLE—KINGSTON DISPATCH)
(Overnight, 1935, by the Chicago Tribune)

LONDON, Sept. 29.—"I have been a fairly good wife of a politician, and now I am going to try to be a good politician myself."

In these words Lady Cynthia Mosley, daughter of a Chicago woman, Mary Leiter, who was the first wife of the late Lord Curzon, yesterday revealed that she is preparing to run for Parliament on the Socialist ticket. Lady Cynthia's husband, Oswald Mosley, once ran as a candidate for the House of Commons.

Telling the story of her life and how she happened to become a Socialist, Lady Cynthia said:

"I wanted to find out things for myself, so I decided to earn my own living like an ordinary worker. I started in the intelligence department of the War Office during the war at a salary of £7 a week. The work was of a confidential nature."

"I became so proficient at the end of two years that my salary was raised to £25 a week. I started at the bottom and finished on top of the jobs in that department."

"After that I had a breakdown in health and decided to join the army of land girls. I worked on a Sussex farm six months, getting up in the cold morning at 5:30 o'clock to feed the ducks and chickens, milk the cows, plant turnips, gather eggs and make butter and cheese. It was the real simple life and I enjoyed it for a time, but soon I missed the noise and hubbub of city life."

"I was too young to go to France during the crucial days of the war. Since marrying I have mainly been helping my husband in his political fights, and now I am looking forward to taking part myself in the general election."

GOLD WATCH GIVEN VETERAN EMPLOYEE

(KANSAS CITY, Sept. 29.—William H. Monahan, 77 years of age, for fifty years an employee of the Central Coal and Coke Company of Kansas City, was recently presented with a gold watch, $100 and retirement on full pay. He accepted the watch and the money, but refused the retirement. "I refuse to quit working," Monahan said. "I'm starting on my second fifty years with as much pep as ever."

PARDONS SLUMP UNTIL COTTON IS CARED FOR

(SAN ANTONIO (Tex.) Sept. 29.—The slump in pardon activities of Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson is said to be due to the fact that convicts are needed in getting out the cotton from the State farm. More than a week has passed without an issuance of a pardon proclamation. The State farms have the largest crop this year in the history of the prison system.

End that morning rush with an extra bathroom

Make idle space pay profits in greatly increased comfort and property value

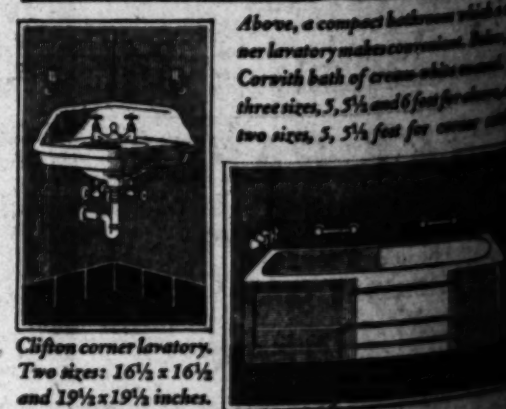

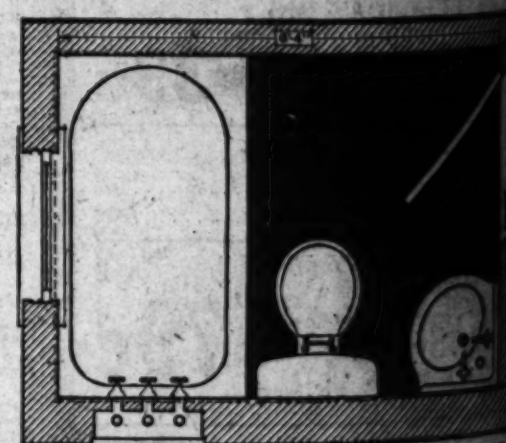

How often is your family able to breakfast together? The morning meal might be so pleasant. Is it, instead, a snatch-and-run affair that starts the day wrong for everyone?

The bolted door of a single bathroom is usually the obstacle to your starting every day on time, with a smile. It causes the most irritating of all your home delays.

Find out how easily you can enjoy the happiness and health of an extra bathroom in your house. Your plumbing contractor will show you the needed room in a hall-ehd, an odd corner, an idle closet.

There are Crane fixtures priced within easy reach of all. They will transform limited space into a complete convenient bath.

See them at the nearest Crane Exhibit Rooms. "The New Art of Fine Bathrooms" will give you many helpful suggestions. Write to Crane Co., Chicago, for your copy.

FEZ SHOCKED AS MARSHAL QUILTS

Resignation of Lyautey
Comes as Surprise France Hard Pressed to Find Successor
Governor-General Leaves
Stamp on Country

BY FLOYD GIBBONS
(BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
FEZ (Morocco) Sept. 29.— France will be hard pressed to find a successor to Marshal Lyautey, whose sudden request for replacement as resident general of Morocco eclipses the battle front news. From the darkest recesses of the native markets far in the interior to the northernmost front-line camps, the marshal's action is the sole topic of conversation, presented in a discussion of a new incumbent to the vice-regal post.

A soldier or a civilian, is the question. It is not believed that Marshal Lyautey would accept the post in conjunction with his position as commander of all the armies for France, General Naulin, the most efficient commander of the French forces in Morocco, is considered a temporary substitute until a new man is found.
M. Steeg, present Minister of Justice and vice-president of the Council, is spoken of as the most likely candidate, with his great administrative record as Governor General of Algiers.

WIDESPREAD REGRET
Although Marshal Lyautey's retirement has long been a subject of political discussion, due to his age and state of health, Morocco received the news today with a shock. Widespread regret is expressed on all sides over the threatened departure of the old resident general. His work in Morocco during the short space of twelve years during which the protectorate has existed is considered an unusual record of colonial administration.

CAPTURED TOWN
By building hundreds of miles of excellent roads, the construction of railroads and the extension of telephone, telegraph, electric light plants, drinking water supply, and sewerage disposal system, he increased a decade has opened the interior of Morocco to the world.
No white man in Morocco today can forget that just twelve years ago the entire white population of Fez was massacred. It was Marshal Lyautey who captured the town, punished the guilty and established a government in the name of Sultan Moulay Youssef.

PORTLAND (Or.) Sept. 29.—
When William Howard, proprietor of a rooming-house here, went today to the room of Mrs. Henri Meunier, 54 years of age, to deliver a letter from her husband, which she had been waiting for, he found the woman dead from drinking poison. Howard said Mrs. Meunier had been despondent because she had not heard from her husband, who was working in the harvest at Scobay, Mont. The letter delivered today contained a money order for $14.

COURTESY OF COURT GIVEN TO WITNESS

Texas Justice Testified to Reputation of Oil Man Asking Probation

Courtesy of the court was paid to Robert M. Vaughan, associate justice, Court of Civil Appeals, Dallas, Tex., yesterday by United States District Judge Hanning when the witness appeared to credit the life of Wyatt L. Nix, Texas oil operator, who is seeking probation from his sentence two years ago for using the mails to defraud. As Justice Vaughan stepped toward the witness chair he was stopped by Judge Hanning and informed that he could not file further facts in support of the pleading. Nix was sentenced more than two years ago by former Judge Blodgett to serve two years in prison and pay a fine of $1000. He carried an appeal to the Circuit Court of Appeals and obtained a stay of judgment on the probation plea. According to the statements of Justice Vaughan, Nix at one time was the administrator of a $900,000 estate, and his reputation for Texas was one of the highest. He has been at liberty on bond.

CITY STREET PROJECTS UP TO COUNCIL

Members Approve Plans in Two Propositions But Delay on Third

Three important street opening and widening proceedings were before the City Council yesterday. Two of these projects, concerning Redondo Boulevard and Fremont avenue, have been approved by the Street Opening and Widening Committee. The Redondo Boulevard plan is for the opening and widening of the boulevard from La Brea avenue and Country Club Drive across the city to West Jefferson and the city limits, giving a thorough north-and-south artery. The project provides for crossings over the Pacific Electric tracks at Sixteenth street and at San Vicente Boulevard. The Fremont avenue project is for widening and straightening the avenue from Alhambra street across the city to Exposition Boulevard. The plan carries a width of eighty feet, with a fifty-foot roadway. A width of 100 feet was first suggested, but this was discarded as too expensive. The Council also considered widening Normandie avenue, north and south across the city, to eighty feet. The Council has not yet taken final action on any of these projects.

Settlement Out of Court Seen in Will Contest

Settlement out of court of the contest of the will of the late Mifflin H. Berry of Glendale was indicated yesterday in Judge Monroe's court when the case was dismissed shortly before the time scheduled for it to go to trial. Berry left an estate valued at $17,000. After the dismissal was entered, Judge Monroe transferred the case to Judge Willis's court for further proceedings. Under the terms of the will, the widow, Mrs. Mary M. Berry, received the home-place in Glendale and one-third the residue of the estate, while the remainder was bequeathed to a daughter, Lena Berry Boston, and a granddaughter, Audrey Berry. The case was instituted the court contest on the ground the will was not executed according to law and offered another document in which the estate was divided between the widow and two daughters, excepting for minor bequests to living grandchildren.

Two-Story Fall From Scaffold Injures Worker

Carl Osterman, 34 years of age, of 1344 Fourth avenue, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon when he fell two stories from a scaffolding in a building under construction at 3215 West Twenty-fourth street. He was working as a plasterer at the time, according to the police. When taken to the Receiving Hospital for emergency treatment, he was found to be suffering from a painful injury to the back which may result in internal injuries. He was later taken to the Roosevelt Hospital.

HEAVY TOURIST TRADE FOR COAST PREDICTED

Optimism in business conditions prevails in the South and will reflect in increased travel to Los Angeles and other parts of California this winter, according to F. E. Watson, general passenger agent of the Southern Pacific, who has just returned to this city from a combined vacation and business trip. Mr. Watson visited New Orleans, Havana, the ports of Honduras and Costa Rica and the Canal Zone while away. He said that Havana is preparing for an excellent winter season and that in New Orleans and other parts of the South conditions are better than in the past.

ZONE LAW CHANGE DENIED
 The City Council yesterday voted no on a request for a change of zoning laws to permit the establishment of a skating rink on Western avenue at Harold Way.

MULTI-DIVORCEE HELD FOR NOTES

Mrs. Dornblaser in Court on Federal Indictment

Improper Letters to Wife of ex-Husband Charged

Marks Asserts Continual Annoyance by Woman

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Mrs.
Lydia Lock Dornblaser—who was succeeded by the wife of Lord Talbot, Orrville Harrold, the opera singer, and Arthur H. Marks, millionaire president of the Skinner Organ Company, was arrested this afternoon by her attorney after a Federal grand jury had indicted her on a charge of sending two improper letters to Mr. Marks's present wife.

Her face veiled, Mrs. Dornblaser, an attractive brunette, was taken to the office of Dist. Atty. Buckner for arraignment.
Mrs. Dornblaser pleaded not guilty, and was held in $4000 bail.
Judge Estes declared the case will be heard within ten days.
According to attorneys for Mr.
Marks, who was at one time president of the Goodrich Rubber Company, and during the war "a dollar-a-year man," Mrs. Dornblaser has annoyed Marks continually, despite the fact that he gave her more than $500,000 as a divorce settlement.

BONUS PROVIDED
One of the agreements in the divorce settlement arranged by Mr.
Marks's attorneys was the settlement of a $100,000 bonus Mrs.
Dornblaser provided she maintained good behavior for five years and annoyed neither Mr. Marks nor his friends.
The present Mrs. Marks, who was Margaret Hoover before she married
Marks in London, has sued Mrs. Dornblaser for $250,000 for defamation of character.
The letter mentioned in the indictment was written on or about and annoyed neither Mr. Marks nor his friends. According to the indictment, the letter contained charges of "malicious conduct" on the part of Mr. Marks.
Mrs. Dornblaser has had an exciting life, having been married four times, and has often figured in the public prints. She was tried for the murder of her first husband, Robert Talbot, known in Reno as the "prince of gamblers," and was acquitted. This was in 1911, when she was 23 years of age. She later became an opera singer.

In the autumn of 1912 her engagement to Orrville Harrold, the opera singer, was announced.

Her husband, a millionaire organ manufacturer, proved that a baby she insisted was his, was indeed his, and she was forced to leave him. In 1917, when they were in Kansas City, from which it had been learned that she had been married.

The third marriage resulted in a divorce in 1923, and then she got a fourth husband. He was Harry Dornblaser

Suedia, Syria—The rebel Druse tribesmen are reported to be dispersing in all directions before the French attack, and the opinion is held that the relief of the Suedia garrison broke the back of the revolt. Photo shows French artillery officers directing fire. (P. & A. photo.)

London—Ten years ago the 9th inst., the first German air raid over London was conducted. This picture, which is released for publication by the Imperial War Museum for the first time, depicts the havoc wrought by the German bombs. London observed the anniversary of the first raid. (Keystone photo.)

Lima, Peru—With the aid of Gen. John Pershing, the long-drawn-out war waged by Chile and Peru over the provinces of Tacna and Arica has been settled in a manner satisfactory to both nations. The photo shows the signing of the compromise, with Gen. Pershing (extreme right) looking on. (P. & A. photo.)

PARLIAMENTARY CHIEF ELECTED

Senator McKinley to Head International Confab

Topics Include Disarmament and Outlawry of War

Discussions Interrupted by Clash Over Communism

(BY A. P. MONT WIRE)
NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Senator McKinley of Illinois, today was chosen by the council of the Inter-Parliamentary Union as president of the conference opening in Washington Thursday. His selection must be approved by the full conference membership after the session opens in Washington.

Discussion of the agenda for the Washington meeting was said to have developed that disarmament and the outlawry of war would comprise the two major topics. The controversy over Shapurji Saklatvala, Communist member of the British House of Commons, whom the State Department barred from this country, interrupted proceedings of the council and threatened to present itself again when the Washington sessions open Thursday, although the council tonight did everything within its power to end the incident over the Anglo-Indian radical.

Acting on a protest from Saklatvala against what he called the "extraordinary step" by the United States government in making his passport void, the council adopted resolutions declaring "it recognizes that the American government has a right to enforce its own laws and therefore cannot discuss merits or demerits of the case."

A copy of the resolution was sent to Saklatvala. Discussion of the Saklatvala question was carried over until tonight from the long morning executive session so that an enlarged executive committee could prepare the resolution.

With the British delegation of forty almost unanimously backing Secretary of State Kellogg's action in revoking Saklatvala's American visa, officials of the union tonight expressed the hope that nothing more would be heard of the matter.

Ford Airplane in Crash as Flyers Arrive at Omaha

(BY A. P. MONT WIRE)
OMAHA (Nebr.) Sept. 29.—The last of the seventeen planes in the Ford reliability test arrived at Fort Crook Field here shortly after 5 o'clock tonight from Des Moines. They will spend the night here.

Casey Jones, flying the Curtiss carrier pigeon No. 22, was eliminated from the test when he struck a motorcyclist while making a landing at Fort Crook Field.

The accident occurred as the plane was taxiing down from the center of the field. The motorcyclist was wrecked. The airplane turned up on its nose, smashing the propeller and puncturing the gas tank.

Fred Bogart, newspaper man, who was riding in the plane, received minor injuries about the mouth and body in the impact. Jones and L. D. Clifford, his mechanic, were not injured.

Planes are being completed by Ward McPadden, commander of the Ship Cafe, to show motion pictures on the upper deck of the unique restaurant on the Venice Pier, while dancing holds sway on the main deck.

Walter Lyon's Ship Cafe orchestra is continuing to introduce the latest novelties in dance numbers, and the ship is proving as popular a rendezvous for all ages as it was in the days before the fire, when McPadden was at the helm of the original institution.

Best Rover, manager of the Paris Inn at 110 East Market street, announces the recent engagement of a new orchestra known as the "Owens Five." That organization has just finished a successful tour of a vaudeville circuit.

Miss Marie De Moris, eccentric dancer at the Paris, will continue her engagement there.

Mr. Rover says that several of the prominent opera stars who will sing in the Olympic Auditorium this coming season have promised to accept his hospitality and be his personal guests at the inn on a number of occasions during their two weeks' stay here.

The Kappa Theta Phi sorority members held their monthly luncheon at Westlake Park pavilion recently. Tables for thirty were set on the outdoor piazza overlooking the lake and park, and were decorated in orange and black. Miss Edna Sims and Miss Irene Manning were in charge of the outing.

Several other luncheon clubs which meet at Westlake Park have new members. A private nook has been set aside for the gatherings. Among these organizations which meet there weekly are the Greater Westlake Business Association, the Proximo Club and the Baptist Teachers' Club.

Mrs. Michael Klemmer, owner of the Klemmer's Blue Plate Cafe, to be opened in the Hotel Plaza in Hollywood in the near future, announces that in the new eating place the same Blue Plate service will be obtainable as is now a part of the service in her Marine Yacht Cafe in South Spring street.

The Blue Plate Service offers patrons complete plate meals in many varieties, such as fish, seafoods, steaks, meat dishes and poultry. The idea was adopted by Mrs. Klemmer from eastern cafes and restaurants.

Grace Gibbons, leader of the Italian Village Cafe orchestra, and her orchestra, and Lucile Hernandez, leader of the Village Cafe orchestra, will continue to please the Village Cafe patrons.

Manager Tadini states that the usual Saturday afternoon tea dances and the ballroom carnivals Saturday evenings have proved to be excellent drawing cards.

Virginia Vance, star of the Jack White productions, will be the guest of honor and will award the prizes for the dancing contest at Eddie Brandstatter's Montmartre this evening. Producer White and all the players in his organization are expected to be present.

In addition to this, a group of the "Regulars," a group of the popular Hollywood party tonight. The prizes for the dancing contest will consist of a Brandstatter trophy for the gentleman winner and a merchandise order from the Society Stationery Shoppe for the feminine winner. O. L. Moore will act as master of ceremonies and will present a vaudeville entertainment including several dance numbers by James McGee and Dolores Eline. The evening's entertainment will also include a Charleston contest.

The formal opening of the Studio Inn, a unique new Los Angeles cafe at Sixth and New Hampshire streets, occurred recently. The decorating of the new cafe was done by Miss Henrietta Shore, who, with her sister, Miss Annette Shore, and Miss Helen F. Shock, is the proprietress.

A gift shop is maintained on the ground floor of the Studio Inn, while on the second floor an art exhibit of Miss Shore's work is open to the public.

A huge India print, which took a prize in the recent Wembley Exposition in London, is exhibited in the gift shop.

Jerry Strayer, manager of Vernon Country Club, has engaged Hal Shellhorn's band to play in his popular cafe.

Jerry says that one must indeed be disabled if he will not get up and dance when Hal Shellhorn and his boys start playing.

Although Mr. Shellhorn is a newcomer here, he is being received very cordially by Vernon Country Club patrons.

George Lloyd and Mel Calish are starring the popular hits of the day there.

ENTIRE TOWN IN KIDNAP HUNT

But It Proves Vain Because 'Victim' Found at Play With Kittens

(BY A. P. MONT WIRE)
SAN RAFAEL, Sept. 29.—The town of Novato near here, declared a holiday today and the entire population joined in a search for Mary Binford, 3 years of age, believed to have been kidnapped while at play. Seven hours later she was found on a steep hillside a mile and a half from her home. She was seated under a tree cuddling two kittens and watching the antics of a puppy, disturbed by falling leaves. She was unharmed.

Park, which takes place on February 12.

He already has entered orders with leading Swiss manufacturers for machines to be distributed at the anniversary celebration to avoid the rush of orders for the Christmas toy trade.

Jean Nortill, chef de cuisine of the exclusive Wilshire district restaurant, is planning to serve the same menu he once prepared for Emperor Franz Joseph of Austria, at the Lafayette anniversary dinner.

American-Owned Ship Target of Chinese Shots
(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS)
SHANGHAI, Sept. 29.—An American-owned vessel, the steamer Chi Chuen, was hit by 300 shots fired by Chinese troops today from a point on the Yangtze River, between Ichang and Chungking. This information was communicated to the offices of the owners of the vessel, the Yangtze Rapids Navigation Company. The American gunboat Palos was ordered to the scene as a convoy to the attacked vessel. Chungking is a treaty port 1400 miles from Shanghai.

The Blue Book of Social Usage

More Than 110,000 Copies Sold

So great has been the demand for this book that it is now in its 15th large edition. Among other reasons for its popularity, not the least is the way Mrs. Post fits her suggestions to every walk of life and every pocket-book. Her theme is not wealth but good manners—whether in country estate, city apartment or suburban cottage.

This witty, entertaining and yet minutely correct volume on those elusive laws governing social life is entirely different from the many "books of etiquette" now before the public.

Gives Correct Procedure For Every Occasion
How Strangers Acquire Social Standing in a Community
When Introductions Are Not Necessary
How a Young Girl Is Presented to Society
Engagements—Wedding Gifts—Bridgroom and Bridesmaids
Country House Hospitality

Letters of Introduction and Recommendation
What to Wear in a Restaurant
Luncheons—Afternoon Teas—Dinner Parties
Etiquette of the Ballroom
How to Ask for a Dance
Etiquette of the Club—At the Bridge Table—On the Golf Links

The Most Reliable Authority
The New York Tribune declares that "not since Mrs. Sherwood sponsored her book on etiquette some fifty years ago has any one so obviously well equipped appeared as author on the subject."

The Chicago Tribune says "it is the most complete book on social usage that ever grew between two covers."

The Cleveland Plain Dealer says "it is invaluable to the average thinking man or woman who wishes to live to-day's life in as polished and near-conventional a manner as possible."

Good Manners Open Many Doors that Money Will Never Move!

"Elephants at large in the garden" is the way Emily Post describes the millionaire who thinks that his money gives him a right to everything. Good taste and a knowledge of what to do and when to do it are the only sure passports to homes of refinement and real social leadership.

Good taste and knowledge—some people call this "manners," others "etiquette." The name is less important than the thing itself. Mrs. Post knows the laws of social usage thoroughly and at first hand. She is not only a prominent New York society woman herself, but also a brilliant novelist and a woman of broad understanding. Her book on etiquette is a masterpiece of accurate knowledge, friendly suggestion, and common sense.

A Standard of Reference
This book is already preeminently the standard of reference throughout the country—praised by the critics, accepted by society leaders, and eagerly sought by those whose instinct tells them that only a woman in Mrs. Post's position and with her ability can be an authoritative and friendly guide.

Former President of Mexico
Leaves Bay City

Hero of Southern Republic
Honored Guest

Urges Better Trade Relations
in Luncheon Speech

(SPECIAL MESSAGE)
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29.—San Francisco today said adios to Gen. Alvaro Obregon, ex-President of Mexico, after a brief, but busy, visit to the Golden Gate. [The hero of Mexico left tonight for Southern California following a two-day stay in San Francisco, the guest of the city and Chamber of Commerce. As a result of his visit, it is expected that closer business relations will be established between

IOWA LISTS THOUSANDS AS INELIGIBLE FOR MARRIAGE

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

DES MOINES, Sept. 29.—The State Board of Control, Bureau of Child Welfare, which is listing Iowans who are ineligible to marry, announced today that approximately 100,000 names will appear on the list. These persons are inmates of State asylums for the insane, and under the law "those whom the board knows to be unfit for marriage."

San Francisco and Mexico in response to the suggestion of Gen. Obregon. On his return home the former President will outline what he considers the best means for closer trade relations and these ideas will be carried out at group meetings of prominent San Francisco business men, called by President H. Clay Miller of the Chamber of Commerce.

GUEST AT LUNCHEON
Gen. Obregon was tendered a luncheon today by the Chamber of Commerce, Downtown Association and Commercial Club at the latter's quarters in the Merchants' Exchange. At this time he asked for closer co-operation of the commercial interests of San Francisco in order to develop the West Coast of Mexico to the profit both of the Mexicans and California. "Mexico," he said, through an interpreter, in addressing the guests at the luncheon, "which is rich in natural resources, has not sufficient capital to develop them. We need outside help. Most urgent and necessary are good highways and other means of communication. Mexico, especially the West Coast, needs developing."

President Miller of the Chamber of Commerce, as chairman of the day, assured Gen. Obregon of hearty co-operation on the part of San Francisco and California. He said that the Chamber of Commerce had been working in Mexico along lines suggested by its former President. In introducing the guest of honor, Chairman Miller declared that Gen. Obregon had done more for Mexico than any other man in that country by bringing order out of chaos and succeeding in acquiring for the nation the confidence of the world.

ROLPH IN GREETING
Mayor Rolph, in greeting Gen. Obregon, told about the 10,000-acre ranch now being successfully conducted on land which had not been touched by a plow for ten years. Obregon is the greatest agricultural producer in Mexico today, the Mayor declared, sending his products by the shipload to the markets of the world.

Chester Rowell and M. Kerner, former president of the Downtown Association, thanked Gen. Obregon for the hospitality he extended San Francisco and Mexico, and were the guests of the former President. Rowell described Obregon as the only Mexican President who had been able to hand over the reins of government to his successor without violence and bloodshed.

GUN GIVES CLEWS TO SKELETON

Bones Found in Desert
Believed Those of Missing San Diego Man

(SPECIAL MESSAGE)
SAN DIEGO, Sept. 29.—Credence to the theory that the bones found yesterday in the desert at Cabana, north of Coyote Wells, are those of C. A. Covall was strengthened today when Roy Covall, 17-year-old son of the missing man.

The gun which was found beside the body was identified by Walter Macy, superintendent of the police bureau of identification. The records show it was sold to the elder Covall November 25, 1932. Covall is described in the sale report as being 44 years of age and 5 feet 6 inches tall. The gun was sold by E. A. Vancell of the Cycle and Arms Company.

Going through the 1933 City Directory, Detective J. L. Berg found the name Covall and the address, 43 Eighteenth street. Berg went to the house only to find it padlocked and with no indication of having been lived in recently. The son finally was located in the Western Union offices here, where he is employed as counter clerk. He told Berg that his father disappeared in November, 1932, about the time that his mother's disappearance followed a family row and Mrs. Covall subsequently began divorce proceedings. The mother and daughter are now at the Vaclain Home for Tubercular Patients.

DRY AGENTS TO BE SUB ROSA

"Under Cover" Agents Will Ferret Out Violators in Honolulu

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS)
HONOLULU, Sept. 29.—Prohibition enforcement in Hawaii took a new turn today with announcement of officials that "under cover" agents had been engaged, and will be employed hereafter.

Seven secret agents will don evening clothes and attend leading social functions. Other men will trail prominent citizens carrying his pocket flasks in the hope that the trails will lead to the doors of their favorite bootleggers.

It was declared that the program will be a permanent one and that effort will be made to give publicity to the names of liquor buyers as well as those of liquor sellers.

DISCUSS CITIES' PROBLEMS

Standardized Traffic System and Extension of Eminent Domain Urged by Municipalities

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent
LONG BEACH, Sept. 29.—Adoption of a standardized traffic system throughout Southern California and the passage of a new State law extending the right of eminent domain were among the outstanding recommendations made by speakers today at the convention of the California League of Municipalities, now in session at the Hotel Virginia.

Comprehensive plans were re-boarded of experts be appointed to go into the question thoroughly. The expenses of this board, he suggested, might be borne by the municipalities in the measure that they availed themselves of its services.

Traffic problems and their possible solution were discussed by Dr. Miller McClintock, designer of Los Angeles' traffic system, and professor of political economy at the University of Southern California, in his address.

He reviewed the changes which had been made in Los Angeles traffic regulation, becoming effective January 1, last, and by statistics showed that a material reduction in traffic accidents had been accomplished.

Dr. McClintock urged that the time was ripe for a complete standardization of traffic rules throughout Southern California to replace the individual traffic codes now in effect in various cities.

This variety of traffic regulations makes it difficult for newcomers to the State to comply with the law in each community they happen to drive through, he stated.

Suggestion that city officials of every municipality meet occasionally to consider the program to be followed in event of such a catastrophe as the recent earthquake here, was made by City Manager Herbert Nunn of Santa Barbara, in his address. Two facts were stressed by Mr. Nunn, namely, earthquakes are of world-wide in-

DRY AGENTS TO BE SUB ROSA

"Under Cover" Agents Will Ferret Out Violators in Honolulu

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS)
HONOLULU, Sept. 29.—Prohibition enforcement in Hawaii took a new turn today with announcement of officials that "under cover" agents had been engaged, and will be employed hereafter.

Seven secret agents will don evening clothes and attend leading social functions. Other men will trail prominent citizens carrying his pocket flasks in the hope that the trails will lead to the doors of their favorite bootleggers.

It was declared that the program will be a permanent one and that effort will be made to give publicity to the names of liquor buyers as well as those of liquor sellers.

ALCOHOL CONTROL CHANGES

Collector Goodcell Under Washington's Orders to Turn Over Powers to Frith

Control of manufacture, sale and use of specially denatured alcohol, which in the past has been in the hands of Collector of Internal Revenue Goodcell, has been transferred to Federal Prohibition Administrator Frith, according to instructions received from Washington and announced yesterday by Collector Goodcell.

Supervisory control of the office assigned to the operations and any duty is required of the prohibition commissioner, or the prohibition directors, within the districts created, or the terms of any bond, permit, or other authority whatsoever, relating to the production, storage, or distribution of liquor, such authority shall be vested in, and the duty shall be performed by, prohibition administrators.

"Where it is required by such regulations, or by the terms of any permit bond, other document, agreement, or understanding whatsoever, relating to intoxicating liquors, that the original or copies of the latter shall be forwarded by prohibition directors to the prohibition commissioner, or where required of Internal Revenue, etc."

DISCUSS CITIES' PROBLEMS

Standardized Traffic System and Extension of Eminent Domain Urged by Municipalities

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent
LONG BEACH, Sept. 29.—Adoption of a standardized traffic system throughout Southern California and the passage of a new State law extending the right of eminent domain were among the outstanding recommendations made by speakers today at the convention of the California League of Municipalities, now in session at the Hotel Virginia.

Comprehensive plans were re-boarded of experts be appointed to go into the question thoroughly. The expenses of this board, he suggested, might be borne by the municipalities in the measure that they availed themselves of its services.

Traffic problems and their possible solution were discussed by Dr. Miller McClintock, designer of Los Angeles' traffic system, and professor of political economy at the University of Southern California, in his address.

He reviewed the changes which had been made in Los Angeles traffic regulation, becoming effective January 1, last, and by statistics showed that a material reduction in traffic accidents had been accomplished.

Dr. McClintock urged that the time was ripe for a complete standardization of traffic rules throughout Southern California to replace the individual traffic codes now in effect in various cities.

This variety of traffic regulations makes it difficult for newcomers to the State to comply with the law in each community they happen to drive through, he stated.

Suggestion that city officials of every municipality meet occasionally to consider the program to be followed in event of such a catastrophe as the recent earthquake here, was made by City Manager Herbert Nunn of Santa Barbara, in his address. Two facts were stressed by Mr. Nunn, namely, earthquakes are of world-wide in-oldence and consequently must be safeguarded against by every community and that the destruction of life and property is largely the result of improperly constructed buildings.

Hylan Formally Decided Against Mayoralty Race

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Mayor Hylan today made a matter of formal record his intention to retire to private life at the end of his present term and thus virtually eliminated the possibility of an independent ticket in the November Mayorality election.

BOND QUOTATIONS

Prices Drift Down

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Bond prices again drifted lower today, reflecting the restrictive influence of stiffer money rates. Liberal selling developed in a few instances, but buyers were found at the lower levels and price reactions were limited.

Liberty bonds continued their downward drift with the 3 1/2's again falling below par. Foreign obligations also were sluggish, although French bonds were under accumulation in anticipation of an early settlement of the government's war debt to the United States. Mexican issues lost ground in the face of an announcement that a possible restoration of the Mexican debt agreement would be discussed by international bankers with Mexico's finance minister this week.

Price movements in the industrial division were mixed. Moderate gains were recorded by Pan-American Petroleum Co.'s Consolidated Coal Co. and Midvale Steel Co. in contrast with rather heavy selling of Sinclair Oil Co., Bethlehem Steel Co. A. and National Acme 1-2's.

Negotiations were reported to be pending for several important issues, which will be floated as soon as the market has had time to digest the recent heavy volume of financing. The Pennsylvania Railroad was said to have secured a $10,000,000 loan for the Republic of Colombia in under consideration and a loan of $10,000,000 to $40,000,000 for Chile has been mentioned as a possibility.

MARKET AVERAGES

(REUTERS DISPATCH)

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Marked improvement in the oil and public utility shares featured today's active trading on the New York market. Buying was in larger volume in contrast to the heavy selling of the previous session, enabling many issues to regain much of yesterday's losses. Price movements were irregular.

Vacuum Oil with a net gain of nearly 8 points, and Humble Oil, which closed 2 1/2 points higher, stood out in the petroleum group. Standard Oil issues generally were firm, gains being restricted chiefly to fractions. Redbank Oil lost 1 1/2 points.

Demand for the public utility issues developed in early dealings and continued through the day. National Power and Light closed 400 for a new high, closing at that figure for a net gain of 10 points. United Light and Power gained 3 1/2 and Lehigh Power securities moved up 2.

Industrials displayed better strength. Remington-Union Pacific closed at 12 1/2 for a gain of 5 1/2 points. Richmond Radiator held an advance of 3 1/2. Victor Talking Machine, which was heavily sold yesterday, came back with a net gain of 3 points, but the radio shares generally seemed unable to recover from yesterday's slump. Grimes Radio lost 4 points more. Selling continued in Engineers' Gold, which had an additional loss of nearly 2 points.

Following are the closing quotations on the New York Stock Exchange:

FLAGSHIPS WILL GO TO DRY DOCK

Vessels to Undergo Work at Puget Sound

San Francisco Yard Gets Three for Repairs

U.S.S. Seattle Will be Sent to New York

The U.S.S. California and the U.S.S. West Virginia, flagships of the United States battle fleet and the battleship divisions, respectively, will be the only dreadnaughts of the fleet now in port to undergo overhaul at the Puget Sound navy yard prior to the fleet's departure for South America next February. It was announced yesterday that the other battleship units will remain in this area with the exception of the usual navy yard dispersion on October 17. The California will arrive at Puget Sound on October 10 and will not return here until December 1, while the West Virginia will depart November 5 and return in late December.

Three other ships, however, will undergo dry-docking at Hunter's Point, San Francisco, and return immediately to this port. They are the U.S.S. Tennessee, sailing October 24; the U.S.S. Maryland, October 28, and the U.S.S. Pennsylvania, November 2. The U.S.S. Idaho, now at Hunter's Point, will join the fleet here on October 2, while the U.S.S. Oklahoma, now undergoing overhaul at the Puget Sound yard, will return here November 1 and return to San Francisco on October 15.

Numerous movements will be made by fleet units during the next fortnight. The hospital ship Relief will return today from San Diego and the transport transport Vega will sail for the east coast. The U.S.S. Eagle 35 and U.S.S. Edw. 47 are due tomorrow from San Francisco and on Friday morning the U.S.S. Seattle will come up in command of the United States fleet here on October 1.

HARBOR RATED BEST IN NATION

ance of Port Traffic Manager S. Steele Sandberg, was made aboard the United States Revenue cutter Vaughn, in command of Capt. W. A. Woods, and included a trip through the United States battle fleet, anchored in the outer harbor, and a cruise to all of the passenger, freight and oil terminals and the numerous piers throughout the harbor. After completion of the inspection, the Vaughn proceeded to Long Beach along the route of the harbor extension, and back up the main channel to Long Beach Harbor to survey development work there. An automobile tour of the harbor district had been taken previously.

ACCOMPANY PARTY

The party accompanying the committee included Congressman Lindeberger, Maj. H. A. Finch, U. S. district engineer; I. W. Friedman, president of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce; Clarence Matson, of the harbor committee of the Chamber of Commerce; City Manager Windham of Long Beach; Col. Edward N. Johnston, consulting engineer for Long Beach Harbor; Maj. R. G. McGlone, harbor superintendent; Henry M. Robinson of Los Angeles, chairman of the Greater Harbor Committee of 1921; Henry F. Burmeister, president of the Chamber of Commerce; and James F. Collins, chairman of the Long Beach, chamber's harbor committee.

Following the inspection trip aboard the Vaughn the party went to Newport to inspect port development plans and in the evening were guests at a dinner given at the Balboa Yacht Club.

Today the Congressmen and local harbor officials will visit Catalina Island as guests of the William Wrigley Insurance, returning by special boat to Los Angeles Harbor tomorrow morning.

said, notably, the full potency of a truly adequate production of "Aida" main itself. No touring company could, perhaps, ever mingle quite so well the various elements in an opera, endowing them with an affectual decorative and eye-appealing beauty all the while.

It is something, of course, to be considered that the leading singers who evinced such expressive and engaging qualities as the performance progressed, not so consistently prove themselves more brilliant right in the beginning. There were faults to find with both the Aida of Miss Ruse, and the Rhadames of Mr. Lappas, although broadly regarded, these were not sufficient to detract from the worth of the production as a whole.

SUSTAINS REPUTATION

The most striking impression made by any individual singer right at the start was that of Kathryn Melale, who sang America. She has been acclaimed within the past season in the East, and she sustained her reputation, both vocally and in her interpretation of the jealous daughter of the King of Egypt.

It is not an overlooked fact that Miss Melale is occasionally a singer of uneven quality, and there were moments, particularly in the most dramatic vocal passages of her Aida role, when she did not exactly sustain the pitch. Be it said, however, that the more lyric notes that she gave her hearers had an enriching loveliness, and through personality and acting she succeeded in distinguishing laurels that eventually won her applause of notable character.

Lappas achieved the stirring effect with some of his climactic tones. It might be said, in fact, that he finished well in every number from the "Celeste Aida" on. The quality of his tone was not elsewhere always so sure and at moments he seemed to waver a trifle equivocally on a note.

Allowances must naturally be made in this connection for an opening performance—for the fact that there is still a necessity for uniting the work of principal singers, chorus, orchestra and other factors in a grand opera production, which is something that cannot be accomplished even with a very consistent rehearsing alone.

MASTERFUL LEADERSHIP

Richard Hageman, the conductor, demonstrated a decisive authority in his wedding of the production as a whole, and that is much indeed. If a certain esprit was wanting at times in "Aida" this will probably be more manifest at subsequent performances. It is a pleasure to hear under his baton the clarity with which the themes of a work are defined.

The glamour of setting, costumes and mise-en-scene were outstanding in the entire production, and skillfully proved that the dazzling investiture for grand opera is available and can be created here. The chorus, which has been trained under the direction of William Troler, maintained a superior high standard of excellence in its work, both vocally and in stage deportment.

"Aida" is an exacting work in its larger scenes, and never has there been such fine massing of people upon the operatic stage here as in the big Thebes scene. Very adroit stage management was here disclosed, and even the trumpeters and the brass band which are invariably and generally amusingly a part of this episode, were genuinely in the stage picture for once.

The ballet of Ernest Belcher added much to the spectacle with the color harmony of their costumes, as well as the spontaneity of their dance. It is indeed a satisfaction to know that such resources as these can be commanded for grand opera, and most attractive of all was the newness and freshness which hung about all the embellishments of the performance.

In the production of "Aida" this, in truth, marked the enterprise, which has demanded such a large aggregate of effort, as coming truly into its own.

An additional word of praise goes to Rimini, who has also been mentioned for his performance as Amnaro.

An authoritative interpretation of Hamlet was given by Edouard Cotreul, who also sang the role excellently especially in the later scenes. He is, of course, a singer of note.

Minor principals were Joseph Bonnacaze as the messenger, and Marion Mack, whose voice possesses a very warm and charming quality, as the priestess.

From the earliest settlement of Nevada the legend of a gigantic serpent inhabiting the depths of Pyramid Lake has been told. The serpent is said to enter the lake through a vast underground passage extending from the Pacific Ocean and is supposed to have existed since prehistoric times.

Basking in the depths of the lake it lies to wait for luckless adventurers, draws down boats and canoes and devours its victims. The legend has been investigated by many scientists and some contend that the serpent is really an enormous mass of worms that breed in the usually placid waters. But this opinion is shared by Indians and the old white trappers who have caught fleeting glimpses of the mammoth snake. Pyramid Lake is an inland sea of mystery. Situated 300 miles from the ocean, its isles swarm with vast flocks of seagulls and pelicans. The lake receives the discharge of the Truckee River but has no outlet—yet the waters are fresh and abound in trout and other fish—Exchange.

Quail Can't Dispel Scent

Quail do not have the power to withhold their scent, as is believed by a number of gunners. They may be so frightened at the approach of dogs that the scent temporarily leaves them, but the act is unintentional. Some gunners have a habit of waiting a few minutes before following a scattered covey to cover, thus giving the birds a chance to throw off some scent.—Exchange.

FREE—10-Day Tube
Note Coupon

Maybe your teeth are gloriously clear, simply clouded with a film coat. Make this remarkable test and find out

Here's a Gift—

Just send coupon for full 10-day tube of this new way that quickly gives "off-color" teeth dazzling whiteness, and your gums a healthy coral tint to contrast them

It's a little test that you'll enjoy making.
It makes teeth white and gleaming.
If your teeth are "off color" and dull, it doesn't matter how they are naturally that way. They are simply coated. And what you find when that film is removed will surprise you.

Send the coupon for a 10-day tube free. Note difference in the color of your teeth. Mark, how much firmer your gums become.

FILM... the great enemy of healthy teeth and gums

Your tongue across your teeth, and you will find film, a vicious coat that covers them.
This film is an enemy to your teeth—and your gums. You must remove it.

Things to teeth, gets into crevices and stays.
It causes discolorations and gives your teeth that "off-color" look. Germs by the millions live in it and lay your teeth open to decay. And tooth tartar, a chief cause of pyorrhea and gum disorders.

THREE SLAIN IN LOVE FRENZIES

Two Men Shoot Woman and Selves in Bravos

Fourth Victim May Die from Bullet Wounds

One Spectacular Encounter Occurs on Street

Homicidal frenzies into which two Los Angeles men worked themselves yesterday because of thwarted love ended in a pair of bullet barrages that claimed three lives and left another problematical. Two men and one woman are dead. Another woman is dying. Ventura Carrion, 38 years of age, of 810 Bernal avenue, shot and killed Mrs. Concha Valencia of 1428 Lawrence street, and then took his own life to prevent arrest.

James Phillips, who had been rooming lately at 124 South Flower street, shot and probably mortally wounded Mrs. Bertha E. Schauer at 127 West Twenty-seventh street, and then turned the weapon on himself with fatal results.

SHOT ON STREET

Police investigations of both cases resulted in the filing of reports that both Carrion and Phillips demanded attention from the women which neither would he-stator.

Carrion chose a spectacular method of slaying Mrs. Valencia.
The latter was the wife of Tony Valencia. Carrion had been attempting to persuade her to leave her husband for several weeks, according to information gleaned by police. Yesterday, as Mrs. Valencia was en route to her place of employment, Carrion met her at First and Vignes streets.

The two were in the midst of a heated argument as William Campbell of 4198 S. 4 Whittier Boulevard rounded the corner in an automobile. Campbell, who was a shot, Mrs. Valencia staggered and started to run across the street. Carrion, according to Campbell, fired half a dozen shots after her as she ran. Two of them took effect. Mrs. Valencia crumbled in the street, Campbell shouted for help and started after Carrion. The latter hastily shoved another cartridge into his weapon and killed himself before he could be captured.

Mrs. Schauer, shot by Phillips, had been living in an apartment on West Twenty-seventh street and had told the landlord that she expected to rejoin her husband shortly at Fort William, O., police said.

Neighbors said they heard Mrs.
Schauer exclaim yesterday afternoon:

"Oh, he's coming back."
Sounds of an argument followed.
Then shots.

As the neighborhood went into an uproar and calls were sent to University police, Phillips apparently reloaded his revolver and shot himself. He died on the way to the receiving hospital. Surgeons there declared Mrs. Schauer had little chance to recover.

"FIGHTING ADMIRAL" PAYS VISIT

Former Commander of Fleet Passes Day Here Going to Washington

Admiral Hugh Rodman, retired, the "fighting admiral" of the Navy and former commander of the Pacific Fleet, came home yesterday for one day and then left for Washington to meet Mrs. Rodman.

Admiral Rodman, who commanded the United States fleet in the North Sea during the war and was the first commander-in-chief of the Pacific Fleet, returned to his old home here after spending the summer with the United States fleet in the Antilles.

He was a guest of high navy officials on his old flag ship, the U. S. S. New Mexico.

According to the Admiral, he joined the fleet in Hawaii, boarding the U. S. S. California, and made the entire cruise with the Pacific Fleet. He returned to San Diego when the fleet arrived at its base and spent several days with Dr. Sam Rodman, his nephew.

Arriving in Los Angeles Monday, Admiral Rodman spent the day visiting old friends as a guest of Mrs. Natalie R. Duval of 2028 Hawthorne avenue, Hollywood. He departed for Washington on the noon train yesterday.

Admiral Rodman, retired from active service about two years ago and has made his home in Washington with Mrs. Rodman since he left the service.

Ex-"Variety"
Staff Man Dies
in New Mexico

Edward J. Hartman, 39 years of age, formerly a member of the Los Angeles staff of Variety, a theatrical magazine, died yesterday in Silver City, N. M., according to word reaching here.

Except during the war he had been with Variety since 1914. He went overseas with the Pershing contingent as a quartermaster sergeant in 1917. In 1918 he was transferred to a combat division, and was gassed in the Argonne fighting. Two years ago he was transferred from the New York to the Los Angeles office, remaining until May, 1924, when he returned to New York. His health failed and he then went to Tuc-son, Ariz., and later to Silver City.
His body will be sent to New York for burial. He was the son of a wealthy New York plant manufacturer.

Van Nuys Boy
Auto Victim on Sherman Way

Delbert Brown, 10 years of age, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Brown of Van Nuys, was killed yesterday at Reseda by an automobile. According to the report of Officer Gray of the Valley Division, the boy ran from behind a school bus and darted across Sherman Way directly in front of a car driven by Frank Wadley of Owensmouth, which could not avoid hitting him. No arrest was made.

The boy's body was sent to the undertaking rooms of Strother & Dayton at Van Nuys.

BODY OF MISSING MAN FOUND ON PAGGI RANCH

The body of L. Michelson, 70 years of age, of 414 Lincoln street, Monterey Park, was found yesterday by Dante Paggi in the bottoms of the Rio Honda, on the Paggi ranch, near Grava street and San Gabriel Boulevard. Death is believed to have been caused by an attack of epilepsy. Michelson, who was a retired grocer, was reported to have disappeared the first last, by his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Foster.

COURT GETS THREE APPEALS

District Appellate Division Asked to Decide in Cases Ranging From Murder to Tree Fumigation

One woman convicted of burglary asked for a reversal of judgment, the court was called on to determine the merits of various methods of fumigating orange trees and a man convicted of murder in the second degree appealed for a new trial at a session of the Second District Court of Appeals, Division One, held here yesterday. All three cases were submitted on briefs before Presiding Justice Finlayson for the court's deliberation and decision.

Miss Mable Neal, charged with burglary and said to have entered the home of Mrs. Emilie Yokum in the Flintridge district, and the residence of Mrs. Mable Kilham in Pasadena, late in 1924, based her appeal on technical grounds from a judgment confining her to San Quentin, asserting errors were made in the trial court.

WIFE LAUDS FILM ACTOR IN DIVORCE

Says Granville Withers Draws Large Pay and She Wants Part as Alimony

The lives of Merton of the Movies, the grocer's clerk who rose to stardom, and Granville Withers, filling station attendant who attained a name on the silver-sheet, appear to be parallel, except in regard to their wives. Merton's wife, as the sub-titles have it, was his "best pal and his severest critic." In the case of Withers, it developed in Judge Gates's alimony court yesterday. Mrs. Withers may be suing for divorce, but she is not his severest critic.

Far from it, Mrs. Withers, she told Judge Gates, is her husband's most ardent admirer.

"He is a great actor," she said.

And then, equally fervent, surmises the hitch. "He makes $400 a week and can pay alimony."

Modestly. Withere denied he is a second Barrymore but, in effect, is a Ham. He said he finds it hard to get work and is certainly unable to pay alimony.

The situation was further complicated when it was brought out

Somewhat puzzled by the legal status of Young Withers, Judge Gates requested attorneys for the contending sides to submit briefs in the case. Mrs. Withers is represented by Atty. Milton Golden.

In her divorce suit, Mrs. Withers charged her husband with cruelty, asserting he left her and wrote her he "loved another."

MEXICAN TOUR SOON

Missionary Education Excursion to

A party of approximately 100 persons will leave Los Angeles October 17, next, in a special Southern Pacific train for a two weeks' tour of Mexico. It was announced yesterday by C. L. McPaul, assistant passenger traffic manager of the railroad.

The excursion is being conducted by the Missionary Education Movement, with headquarters in the Chamber of Commerce Building, and will be under direction of Dr. and Mrs. John C. Worley, aided by Southern Pacific representatives.

San Luis, Potosi, Saltillo, Monterrey and other cities of Mexico will be visited, the party returning to Los Angeles on October 31, next. Missionaries and other American residents of the cities visited are to act as guides to the visitors, it was stated.

Mrs. Edith Misner is not the kind of a woman who would hamper her husband in his attempts to get a divorce. She proved this yesterday, when she was called from the audience, listening to W. Sumner Misner's suit against her.

"The deserted me," Misner told Judge Sumnerfield.

"Why, but she wouldn't live with me," he said.

When Judge Sumnerfield heard Mrs. Misner was in the courtroom he demanded that she take the stand.

"How about this?" he wanted to know. "Why won't you live with me?"

"Oh, because," Mrs. Misner enlightened the court.

"What reason do you give?" Judge Sumnerfield persisted.

"Just because, that's all," Mrs. Misner informed the judge.

"Well," observed the court, "that's a mighty good reason for giving me a divorce."

And that was the court did.
